

2019 Utah STEM Signing Day

Presented by Boeing & Utah STEM Action Center

About Utah STEM Signing Day

There is a high demand for STEM talent in the United States, and the inaugural Utah STEM Signing Day will be an opportunity to recognize the top STEM talent in the state in front of Boeing corporate leaders, local elected officials, community partners, and others.

Selected students will be invited to a ceremony and special presentation, where they will be recognized in front of their families and our esteemed guests, including Boeing executives. Students will sign “letters of intent” to their chosen STEM field. Students will also be invited to visit a Boeing facility and meet with Boeing engineers and executives.

Who Can Apply?

All Utah graduating seniors (Class of 2019) who have an interest in Science, Technology, Engineering, or Mathematics and plan to pursue a two- or four-year degree in related fields are encouraged to apply!

Winners will be selected based on the strength, completeness, and merit of their Tallo profile.

Event Details:

When: Monday, April 29, 2019

Where: Utah State Capitol | Salt Lake City

Deadline To Apply: April 5, 2019

See reverse side for instructions on how students join Tallo and apply.
